September 30th, 2025	Aliso Canyon Green Schoolyards Grant	Cal Fire	State	July 11th, 2025	Cal Fire's Aliso Canyon Green Schoolyards Grant Opportunity aims to create green schoolyards that protect the health, well-being, and educational opportunity of children most vulnerable to increasing temperatures and extreme heat across California. Projects shall be centered around improving the environmental conditions and experiences for school children with the highest levels of co-benefits. Projects will invest in nature-based climate solutions that deliver multiple benefits such as helping to alleviate extreme heat, improving the immediate environment for students as well as supporting outdoor learning and environmental literacy, while also reducing GHG emissions, improving functionality of urban forests, arresting the decline of urban forest resources, increasing climate change resilience, improving the quality of the environment in urban areas, and optimizing co-benefits to school children and surrounding urban residents. Such projects shall include the planting of trees and may include converting pavement to green spaces on school campuses with a focus on child-accessible areas of campus. Projects may also include strategies such as the installation of natural features for learning and recess such as pocket forests, rain gardens, botanical gardens, food producing gardens and landscaping, outdoor classrooms, as well as maintenance of planted vegetation for the duration of their expected life span. To be eligible for this grant, a project must be located within neighborhoods identified in this map and demonstrate, on a census tract basis, that the proposed project will directly benefit and serve priority populations, disadvantaged communities, low-income communities, and/or low-income households. Each school campus must have a CalEnviroScreen Percentile of 75 or above or an Unduplicated Pupil Count (UPC) 70% or above. Ongoing	Land Acquisition 2025	Wildlife Conservation Board	State	April 22nd, 2025	On behalf of the California Department of Fish and Wildlife (CDFW), the Wildlife Conservation Board (WCB) acquires real property or rights in real property and grant funds to other governmental entities or nonprofit organizations to acquire real property or rights in real property. All acquisitions are made on a "willing seller" basis pursuant to a fair market value appraisal as approved by the Department of General Services (DGS). The acquisition activities are carried out in conjunction with the CDFW, which generally entails CDFW evaluating the biological values of property through development of a Full WCB Real Property Acquisition Application. Once these evaluations are completed, they are submitted to CDFW's Director for review and approval and then sent to the WCB with a recommendation to fund. Typically this process can take anywhere from 6 to 12 months. Concurrent to this the WCB regularly meets with CDFW to help evaluate and set acquisition priorities as new opportunities present themselves.
